Certificate of Analysis means a written statement of the result of an Analysis of the Sample which is issued by a BHA-approved Laboratory;

Clear Day means, in determining the number of days:

- (i) The day on which the period begins; and
- (ii) If the end of the period is defined by reference to an event, the day on which that event occurs are excluded.

Clear Working Day means, in determining the number of days:

- (i) The day on which the period begins; and
 - (ii) If the end of the period is defined by reference to an event, the day on which that event occurs;
- and
- (iii) Saturday, Sunday, Bank Holiday, or day on which the Authority's office is not open for non-automated commercial business are excluded.

Disciplinary Action means action taken by the Authority under Part (A)6 of the Rules;

Disciplinary Panel means a disciplinary panel convened for the purpose of carrying out an enquiry under Part (A)5 of the Rules;

Doping Control means all steps and processes from test distribution planning through to ultimate disposition of any appeal under the Equine Anti-Doping Rules including all steps and processes in between such as Sample collection and handling, Laboratory analysis, results management and hearings;

Export Certificate in relation to a horse foaled outside Great Britain, Ireland or the Channel Islands, means a certificate of pedigree for the horse which

- (i) states the name, pedigree, age, sex, colour and markings of the horse, and
- (ii) is issued and endorsed by a Recognised Stud Book Authority or, in the absence of such an Authority, the Recognised Racing Authority of the country in which the horse was foaled, and
- (iii) is endorsed by the Stud Book Authority or Racing Authority of any other country which the horse has visited before importation into Great Britain;

Racing Calendar Office means the office for the time being appointed by the Authority as the Racing Calendar Office. The present Racing Calendar Office is at Weatherbys Ltd, Sanders Road, Wellingborough, Northamptonshire NN8 4BX;

Recognised Racing Authority means a racing authority of a country which is for the time being recognised by the Authority under the Rules;

Responsible Person means either the Trainer, Owner or legal owner who has care or control of the Horse. For the purposes of determining this, the following shall apply

(i) For a Horse which is or has been in training, save as provided below, the Responsible Person shall be the Trainer with whom the Horse is, or has most recently been, registered with the Racing Calendar Office as being in training. The Trainer may transfer his responsibility as a Responsible Person under the Equine Anti-Doping Rules to the Owner when the Horse goes out of his care or control (for example, when the Horse goes out of training) by notifying the Authority through the Racing Calendar Office's horse management system that the Horse has been "Transferred to Owner". In so doing, the Trainer confirms that he has previously notified the Owner of the transfer by a recognised method of service under the Rules and the Owner has accepted that transfer. Where the Trainer cannot provide evidence of the preceding to the satisfaction of the Authority, the transfer shall not be effected and the Trainer shall remain the Responsible Person, unless he can establish (a) that the Horse was not in his care or control (it either being in the care or control of the Owner, or a third party at the instruction of the Owner), (b) that he has notified the Owner of the transfer by a recognised method of service under the Rules and (c) he has taken reasonable steps to obtain the Owner's acceptance of the transfer.

(ii) Any Horse from outside of Great Britain which is present in Great Britain for a training or racing purpose, and which is not under the care or control of a Trainer (either because the Horse has been transferred to the Owner or otherwise), the Responsible Person shall be the Owner of the Horse.

(iii) For a Horse foaled in Great Britain and Notification provided to the General Stud Book, or foaled in Ireland but present in Great Britain, which has been registered with the General Stud Book but is not yet in training, the Responsible Person shall be the legal owner of the Horse. The Breeder shall be presumed to be the legal owner of the Horse unless he can establish otherwise to the Authority's satisfaction;

Rules means the Rules of Racing as they may be amended from time to time;

Sample means a quantity of any body fluid, tissue, excreta, hair or skin scrapings or any items in contact with any part of a Horse which are taken at the discretion of the Person collecting the Sample (and which may include the removal of implants) for the purposes of Doping Control;

Stalls Test means an official test held in accordance with Schedule (C)5 as a means of testing a horse's tractability in the starting stalls;

Support Personnel means any stable employee (whether full or part-time), consultant, volunteer, agent, veterinarian, medical or other Person assisting in any way a Responsible Person participating in or preparing a Horse for racing. Veterinarians are included in the definition of Support Personnel with the understanding that they are professionals subject to professional standards and licences. An allegation that a veterinarian violated an equine anti-doping rule will only be made where the factual circumstances surrounding a case indicate a likelihood that the veterinarian was involved in the equine anti-doping rule violation;

Tampering means altering for an improper purpose or in an improper way; bringing improper influence to bear; obstructing, misleading or engaging in any fraudulent conduct to alter results or prevent normal procedures from occurring; or providing fraudulent information to the Authority or other organisation;

Target Testing means the selection of Horses for Testing where specific Horses or groups of Horses are selected on a non-random basis for Testing at a specified time;

Testing or Test means the part of the Doping Control process involving test distribution planning, Sample collection, Sample handling and Sample transport to the Laboratory;

Trafficking means selling, giving, transporting, sending, delivering or distributing (or Possessing for any such purpose) a Prohibited Substance or a Prohibited Method (either physically or by any electronic or other means) by a Responsible Person and/or member of his Support Personnel to a third party; provided, however, this definition shall not include the actions of a veterinarian involving a substance or method prohibited at all times in connection with the treatment of animals which are not subject to these Equine Anti-Doping Rules; and shall not include actions involving substances or methods which are not prohibited in Out-of-Competition Testing unless the circumstances as a whole demonstrate that such substances or methods are not intended for genuine and legal therapeutic purposes or are intended to enhance performance;

Trainer means any Person who holds a licence or permit to train which is granted by the Authority or whose authorisation by a Recognised Racing Authority corresponds to such a licence or permit or who is otherwise treated as a trainer under the Rules;

Use means the utilisation, application, ingestion, injection or consumption by any means whatsoever of a Prohibited Substance or a Prohibited Method.
